MRS. DONNIE RAY CASH
the former Miss Barbara Jean Davis

Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Barbara Jean Davis to Donnie Ray Cash took place the evening of April 5, 1974 at 8:00 o'clock in West View Baptist Church in Madison Heights, Va.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan S. Davis, Madison Heights, Va., and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake S. Woodson, formerly of Appomattox, Va. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Ray Cash of Madison Heights, Va.

Rev. John Ragland, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore a gown of bridal satin and lace, fashioned with an empire bodice and featured long lace sleeves with wide cuffs.

The headpiece was a finger tip camelot style cap of sheer tulle accented with white lace and seeded pearls.

She carried a cascade bouquet of carnations, daisies and baby's breath with long streamers, tied in love knots.

Miss Debbie Nuckles of Madison Heights was maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a floor length gown of blue crepe fashioned similar to that of the bride. Her bouquet was a nosegay of carnations, daisies and baby's breath with blue and white streamers.

Mr. Cash served as his son's best man and ushers were George A. Joly, Blacksburg, Va., cousin of the bride, Timothy S. cash and Keith M. Cash, both of Madison Heights, Va. and brothers of the bridegroom.

A program of nuptial was provided by Mrs. John Ragland.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents were hosts for a reception in the church social hall.

Those assisting at the reception were Mrs. Gladys Fulcher of Prospect; Mrs. Edna Woodson, Appomattox; Mrs. Nazareth Reynolds, Madison Heights; Mrs. George A. Joly, Virginia Beach; and Miss Maurleen Hastenings, Hudlleston.

Mrs. Cheryl Joly Whitehurst of North Carolina, served as registor.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Margie Doss.

The bride is a student at Amherst County High School. The groom is a graduate of Amherst County High School and is employed at Babcock & Wilcock.

After a wedding trip the couple will make their home in Madison Heights, Va.

Class Reunions Planned

Plans are being made for a joint reunion this summer of the 1964 and 1965 Classes of Appomattox High School. At a committee meeting held recently at the home of Mrs. Merlyn M. Carroll, tentative plans were discussed by members of both classes with final arrangements to be announced later. Since the Class of 1964 met last year and has contact with and/or addresses of all members, the major task at hand now is doing this with class members of 1965. To anyone reading this who was a member of this class, or who knows of addresses of members, it is requested that they send such information to: Mrs. Vicki S. Canada, Route 1, Appomattox, Va. 24522. This will help enormously in speeding correspondence regarding the reunion.

Concord Garden Club

The April meeting of the Concord Garden Club was held in the home of Mrs. James Hancock with Mrs. C. F. Keesee as co-hostess.

Club members enjoyed a brief social period at which time the hostesses served artistic and delicious refreshments conveying the Easter Season.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Dr. Mae Kelly, after which Mrs. Hancock presented an appropriate and beautiful Easter devotion.

The president welcomed Mrs. deltes McNair as a new member and then suggested that the entire membership participate in the program on "Garden Therapy." Many excellent activites were shared, including experiences of working with shut-ins, the ill, and the handicapped. The group suggested several activities for the future that should challenge the club members in this area.

During the business session each member was given a copy of the recent revision of the By-Laws. Plans were made to attend the District meeting to be held in Danville on April 16 and to visit the lovely Azalea Gardens of Mrs. Tom Morgan in Lynchburg during April. Announcements were made concerning Garden Week in Virginia, emphasizing Lynchburg Day on Tuesday, April 23, and giving a brief resume' of the Fortieth Annual Convention of Virginia Federation of Garden Clubs, Inc. to be held at The Ingleside in Staunton, May 6-8. The president urged as many members as possible to attend Flower Show School Number I and Landscape Design Study Course No. II, August 5-8, and June 10-13 respectively.

Dr. Kelly expressed her appreciation for the cooperation in work and interest of all members during her term of office and challenged the club to continue its interest and activities during the coming year. She announced that the May meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. T. A. Perrow.

Mrs. Ryland Phelps installed the following officers: President, Mrs. R. E. Davidson; Vice-President, Mrs. C. F. Jones; Recording Secretary, Dr. Mae Kelly; Treasurer, Mrs. Kelly Webb. Corresponding Secretaries, Mrs. Hattie Johnstone and Mrs. Harvey Hite; Historian, Mrs. James Hancock; Parliamentarian, Mrs. C. F. Keesee.

Awards were made to the following: Artistic: Blue--Mrs. D. S. Booth, Mrs. Kelly Webb, Mrs. Ryland Phelps, Mrs. Wilson Dowling, Mrs. Douglas Crowther, Red: Mrs. R. E. Davidson.

The April meeting of the Concord Garden Club was held in the home of Mrs. James H.Hancock with fourteen members present and Mrs. C. F. Keesee as co-hostess.

Club members enjoyed a brief social period with artistic and delightful refreshments conveying the Easter season.

The meeting was called to order by the president, after which she welcomed a new member, Mrs. James McNair, the hostess.

MRS. JAMES HUGH BRAFORD
the former Miss Brenda Dianne Williams

Vows Exchanged

The marriage of Miss Brenda Dianne Williams to James Hugh Braford took place Friday evening, April 12, 1974, at 7:30 o'clock in Liberty Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. Williams of Appomattox and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh S. Braford also of Appomattox.

The Rev. J. J. Bowman, interim pastor of the church, and Rev. G. E. Hughes, pastor of Red Oak Baptist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Teresa Smith, soloist, and Mrs. Joyce Vaughan, organist.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white faille taffeta fashioned with an empire waistline, appliqued with alencon lace and enhanced with a train and full length bell sleeves. She wore a veil of silk tulle secured to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a white prayer book with a bouquet of petite colonial cascade of white sweetheart roses, carnations, stephanotis, baby's breath and ivy, centered with a crescent containing a cymbidium orchid corsage.

Miss Debbie Rowe was maid of honor and she wore a floor length gown of peach sheer magic organza dotted swiss over bridal satin and of similar design to that of the bride. Other attendants were Miss Patricia Hudson, Miss Becky Harris, Mrs. Clara Staten, sister of the bridegroom, all from Appomattox; and Mrs. Sara Holder, sister of the bridegroom, from Bellaire, Texas. They wore gowns fashioned like that of the honor attendant in rainbow colors and they carried bouquets centered with a single candle and globe surrounded by carnations, pons, stephanotis, baby's breath and fern. Selected tinted flowers in pale rainbow colors with floor length ribbons matched their gowns.

Miss Lisa Millner of Churchville, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a dress of white, matching that of the other attendants.

Jack Williams, Jr., brother of the bride, was ring bearer and carried the rings on the pistel of an Easter Lily.

Mr. Braford was his son's best man. Ushers were John Braford, brother of the groom; Lynd Staten, brother-in-law of the groom, William Barrow, all of Appomattox; and Jim Holder, brother-in-law of the groom, of Bellaire, Texas.

The mother of the bride chose a floor length gown of blue and white polyester with matching accessories and she wore a corsage of pink rosebuds.

The mother of the groom chose a floor length gown of mint green knit crepe with white accessories and she wore a gardenia corsage.

The church was decorated with urns of white carnations, pom-pons, baby's breath with a back-ground of gladiolis and fern which was dominated by elegant'formal calla-lillies.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church social hall given by the parents of the bride.

Rev. & Mrs. W. H. Elder Honored

Saturday, April 13th the Swanee Creek Camping Club gathered at Old Rocks for a cook-out and their first meeting of the season.

The club had decided to present Rev. and Mrs. Elder a tent trailer as a retirement gift. The tent trailer had been purchased and was set up in the picnic area. The curiosity of The Elders was aroused as to who was planning to camp for the night. They were quite surprised when, after the routine business of the meeting, Toby Inge, president, presented them with the title to the tent trailer from the members of the club.

When the tent trailer had been thoghtghy admired and inspected, the group adjourned hoping to meet in a campground soon.

Nobody makes Brunswick Stew like the folks in Southside Virginia.

That's what Guy Friddell, author of "The Virginia Way," concludes in his remarkably beautiful book about Virginia and its people. He writes about Southside's tobacco market, the events and leaders who shaped the area's history, and what this unique part of the State is like today.

"The Virginia Way" is a book you'll enjoy for years. In its 231 pages are hundreds of photographs, many in full color, that picture Virginia from border to border, in every season. It's a volume to treasure. Or to give.
You'd pay $12.95 for "The Virginia Way" at the bookstore. But now, for a limited time, Fidelity offers it at less than half the retail price. Here's how to get yours:
1. Deposit $100 to a new checking or savings account, or add $100 to existing savings. Get "The Virginia Way" for just $5.95 plus tax.

2. Deposit $1,000 in a 1-year minimum savings certificate. Get "The Virginia Way" for just $2.95 plus tax.
3. Deposit $5,000 in a 1-year minimum savings certificate. Get "The Virginia Way" free.
